

The Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts

Family Arts Night

9225 - 118 ave

The Nina Haggerty Centre for the Arts is a non-profit artist studio that provides a supportive, non-competitive environment in which to make art.

Classes every Thursday evening from 6:30 to 8:00 PM. These classes are FREE!

- September 29 Using clay, make a little candy bowl or mask. Techniques using relief and molding will be used.
- October 6 Discover what happens when you mix primary colours together to make an abstract painting on a wearable item of clothes. Please bring your own shirt/hat to paint! Dyes and other mediums used in process.
- October 13 Still life! Set up your own still life and use charcoal and conte to draw from it!
- October 20 Using mirrors, create your own self portrait! Add your own favorite objects to the piece and make it your own personal work of art! Collage and other techniques explored.
- October 27 Using clay, make a little candy bowl or mask. Techniques using relief and molding will be used.
- November 3 Mixed media experimentation. Look around and discover art in everyday objects. Make treasure from trash and help the environment!

All classes are free! Classes are free, thanks to the generous support of ECALA (Edmonton Community Adult Learning Association) www.ninahaggertyart.ca
